AMBergh Education offers tailored language education, culture courses and volunteer work in mentioned countries.

The education is made to suit the wishes, ambitions, and background knowledge of the students. We work in association with the major universities and institutes in mentioned countries in order to offer a wide range of courses and support to individuals and groups.

Group courses: In small groups on your own level. Start almost every week throughout the year.

Individual tuition: Completely customized to the student's conditions and aspirations. Starts when and where it suits you

Semester courses: Start two or three times a year.

Special courses: in Business language, Media, Politics, Literature etc.

Online lessons: A highly qualified private teacher, flexible and favorable conditions on Skype.

Volunteer work: We work to provide you with a suitable volunteer position at a local organization in your study destination.

Seminaries, study visits, excursions: seminars about community and regional development, economy, history, culture, and politics are offered. In addition, students are invited to join excursions to museums, ballet performances etc, and participate in social events. Combine language studies with special programmes and excursions: make local friends and contacts, gain invaluable insights in the culture, social context, and history.

Accommodation is offered in families, apartments, at hostels and hotels.

Visa support is included.

Scholarship to students in our study programmes.
